Re: MUR 5373

Dear Mr. Veldhuyzen:

This is in response to your letter I received yesterday concerning the above-captioned file. You included in your letter a copy of a memorandum dated October 23, 2000 from Bush-Cheney 2000, Inc. to the effect that Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers was paid $4,244.00 for charter flights provided for the benefit of Bush-Cheney 2000, Inc.

We have searched our records, and have no record of having received or cashed that check. I continue to believe Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers had no involvement – financial or otherwise – in the charter flights in question. I intend to investigate the matter more fully and hope to provide you additional information.

I will be traveling for a portion of next week, so may not be able to get you details until the week of August 25. Please let me know if that presents a problem for you.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

John A. Denniston
